

Watch the video: http://www.neaq.org/animals_and_exhibits/animals/moon_jelly/index.php
And this one: <http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Cnidaria#Locomotion>
And this: http://video.nationalgeographic.com/video/animals/invertebrates-animals/other-invertebrates/coralreef_spawning/
And this: <http://dsc.discovery.com/tv-shows/other-shows/videos/short-attention-four-kinds-of-coral-reef.htm>
And this: http://eol.org/data_objects/23028423

Questions:

1. What is the largest jellyfish?
2. What is the smallest jellyfish?
3. What is the most poisonous jellyfish?
4. What jellyfish is not poisonous?
5. Find a picture of the life cycle of a jellyfish.
6. Find a picture of a hydra.
7. Find a picture of a nematocyst.
8. What are three shapes of coral?
9. Find a picture of your favorite sea anemone.
10. Find three facts about coral bleaching.
11. BONUS: Learn something about jellyfish stings. A picture search may be a good start.

Submit your paper with this information to dlowe@libertyacademycs.org